Consequently, our focus has and continues to be the technical, tactical and psychological development of all participants. Our coaching staff is capable of inspiring your son or daughter to become the best soccer player he or she can be. We have produced many talented players who have gone on to play soccer at the high school and college level. Furthermore, we have transformed so-called non-athletic players into talented and sought-after individuals within the soccer community.

We guarantee that your child will improve his/her soccer skills by season’s end. Our senior coaching staff, each with over 25 years of coaching experience, include Maziya, former Jamaican National league player, and Seymour Alleyne, former Barbados National team player.
